NORBERT 'NOBBY' STILES

Norbert Stiles was nicknamed Nobby Stiles for having no front teeth. He was famous for not wearing false teeth when he played football! He played for England in 1966 when they won the World Cup. Amazingly he only played for England 28 times and still a legend. His post match celebration has become one of the most famous images in English football history. Stiles was dancing on the Wembley pitch with his false teeth in one hand and the World Cup in the other. He was born on the 18th May 1942 in Manchester and played for Man United for most of his career. He was a defensive midfielder.
